GREAT LAKES, IL, United States Army

POSITION: Chaplain Candidate

DATE: 1/25/10

NOTE: The United States Army is in need of highly-qualified applicants for the position of "Chaplain Candidate." You can join a team of spiritual leaders that dates back to the days of General George Washington. It has never been more important than Right Now to answer the call to serve God and Country. Is God calling you for such a time as this? As a Chaplain Officer you will have a ministry to men and women in uniform spanning the globe. Your ministry doesn't stop there. You will not only minister to Soldiers, but their families as well. You will be a preacher, teacher, counselor while also serving as an Army Officer. The Army Chaplaincy differs from that of traditional ministry. The focus of the Army Chaplain Corp is to have "A Ministry of Presence". Unlike traditional Pastoral ministry you will "go to work" everyday with your Soldiers, giving you a unique opportunity for an unparalleled depth of ministry, to the men and women who give their lives to serve the United States of America. Serving God as a Pastor, Rabbi, Imam, or Priest will require you to develop your ministerial skills in seminary and make application of those skills among the community of the faithful. The Army offers the opportunity to learn pastoral skills that will enhance your seminary and pastoral experiences. The Active Duty Army offers a plethora of benefits unrivaled in the civilian world, such as paid vacation, comprehensive medical care, retirement plans, life insurance, and more. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS: While attending seminary, Chaplain Candidates may apply for tuition assistance through the U.S. Army Reserve. You may be eligible for up to 100% of the tuition costs, up to $250 per credit hour with a maximum cap of $4500 per year. This program requires service of at least four years in a U.S. Army Reserve unit once you become a qualified Chaplain. Additional benefits include Advanced Civilian Education. Selected full-time Chaplains are sent to institutions of higher education to get a master's degree in areas such as Ethics, World Religions, Family Life and Resource Management.

REQUIREMENTS: You do not need to wait until ordination to join the Army Chaplaincy. You can train to become an Army Chaplain at the same time you are training for the ministry. The training and experience you will receive as a Chaplain Candidate will add a special dimension to your seminary education. What's more, some seminaries offer academic credit for your training as a Chaplain Candidate. By joining the Army Reserve Chaplain Candidate Program, you will get a head start on Army Chaplain training, as well as all the benefits of being an Army Officer while still in seminary. Few job opportunities of this nature exist for those who have not yet garnered their Masters-level degree. To be eligible for this program, you must: 1. Obtain an ecclesiastical approval from your denomination or faith group.

Educationally, you must: 2. Possess a baccalaureate degree of not less than 120 semester hours. 3. Be a full-time graduate student at an accredited seminary or theological school. 4. Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. 5. Be able to receive a favorable background check. 6. Pass a physical exam. NOW IS THE TIME! There has never been a better time to join the Army Chaplain Corp and serve the over one million Soldiers and their families. Whether your desire is to serve Full time or Part time there is a place in the Army Chaplaincy for you! For more detailed information regarding this position, please contact a Chaplain Recruiter at the following phone number: 1-866-684-1571. Someone will be ready and able to answer any questions and guide you through the application process. Please let him know that you viewed this job posting in order to expedite the process. PRO DEO ET PATRIA! (The Chaplain Corps' official motto: "For God and Country.")

NOTE: In the Army and Army Reserve, you are first and foremost a minister. That is why the Army offers numerous opportunities to continue your pastoral education. Your training begins with the Chaplain Officer Basic Course, a 12-week program at Ft. Jackson in South Carolina. Reservists can complete this program over the course of 3 years, if they choose. After that, you can continue your academic pursuits if you want. There are opportunities for Clinical Pastoral Education, fully-funded master's degree studies and family-life training. In addition, Army Chaplains can seek credentialing tracks in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy and the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. There are also teaching opportunities. By joining the Army Reserve Chaplain Candidate Program, you will get a head start on Army Chaplain training as well as all the benefits of being an Army officer while still in seminary. You can receive up to $3,500 every year during seminary to help toward tuition costs. If you choose to do this, you must serve at least 4 years in the Army Reserve. Your only other obligation is that you seek ordination and ecclesiastical endorsement within 3 years of finishing seminary and meet the Chaplain Candidate requirements.

NOTE: Footprints is a teacher placement and support agency based in Vancouver, Canada. Footprints works with public school boards in South Korea, Taiwan and China as well as reputable private schools in all 3 of these countries. Footprints has taken time to evaluate each employer they represent. Employers are put through an extensive screening process that identifies only the best, and in many cases a representative has visited the school in person to ensure it is an employer with whom we wish to work. Their standards are high because their reputation is their business. Footprints is also run by and for teachers. They will not only assist graduates in securing a placement, but will also walk them through the visa process, assist them in organizing their flights and provide them with ongoing support throughout their contracts. They have a number of excellent opportunities available. Please note that due to governmental restrictions placed on teaching visas, they are only able to work with applicants who are native English speakers and who have a minimum of a Bachelor's degree. For more information, please visit their website or contact Melissa Faraguna.
