NOTE: Life Journey CC, a six-year-old church plant, is seeking a new leader who can coach, equip, and disciple leaders and individuals, helping them take their next steps toward God and move on to their next level, whether that is ministry within the church or community, starting another church, or going into foreign missions. Our church planter is now serving as a leader with Stadia, a church planting organization that starts new churches all over the country. Life Journey is a church like a "developmental league". Our goal is to develop "players" and move them on to their next level by helping them take their next steps toward God. Life Journey is quite diverse on many levels: income, age, ethnically, and spiritually. We have a casual and authentic feel to our community. We are passionate and unconventional in our approach. Life Journey has spent six years allowing God to build a solid foundation. We are now ripe with potential. We have young and undeveloped talent, seasoned veterans, and leaders who are passionate about the journey and destination. Our next leader must exhibit, at a minimum, the qualities of deacon (1Tim 3), be committed to the teaching and practice of weekly communion, baptism by immersion of believers only, and the team leadership of elders and ministers.
