

Adjunct Instructor for ESL American Culture

Lincoln Christian University (LCU) is searching for an adjunct instructor to teach an ESL (English as Second Language) American Culture course in the semester of fall 2019. Applicants need a master's degree in English or related major. Will accept applicants with bachelor's degree(s) with minimum of 5 years of ESL teaching experience. ESL credentials and experience are highly preferred.

Applicants should be prepared to respond to the University's mission, core values, and statement of faith (available at www.lincolnchristian.edu/about-us/#mission). Submit cover letter, resume, and references to Mrs. Marla Bennett, Director of Human Resources, by email at hr@lincolnchristian.edu. Submissions will be accepted until the position is filled with review of applicants beginning on June 10, 2019.

Lincoln Christian University was founded in the heart of Illinois in 1944. Today, more than 1,000 students pursue their undergraduate, seminary, and adult and graduate studies education at our main campus, extension sites, and online. Our alumni have served across the United States and in more than 160 countries. LCU gives its students the knowledge, skills, and Biblical worldview to live their mission in the church, the workplace, and the world. LCU offers a variety of majors and degrees ranging from professional two-year associate degrees to the Doctor of Ministry. The school is historically associated with the Christian Church/Church of Christ, or Restoration (Stone-Campbell) Movement.
