

STATE LICENSURE INFORMATION

Below is a listing of sites that provide information for obtaining licensure in particular states, districts, or US protectorates. You may also review similar information from the AMERICAN COUNSELING ASSOCIATION.

It is important to review what the requirements are for the state you think you may be working and living or one that you are going to move to after graduation. Should you note that what that state wants is different than what is in the MAC degree program at LCU please contact ENROLLMENT SERVICES. It is possible, though not guaranteed, that adjustments can be made to our program that will allow you to meet another state's standards.
